Recognition of House Job at GTBH for Post-Graduate Studies

1647. SHRI DHULESWAR MEENA: Will the Minister of HEALTH AND FAMILY WELFARE be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that according to rules of Medical Council of India every hospital attached to Medical College awarding MBBS degree is recognised for house job;

(b) whether it is also a fact that Medical Council of India recognises MBBS degree of University College of Medical Sciences till 1992;

(c) whether it is also a fact that Guru Teg Bahadur Hospital is attached to UCMS;

(d) if so, what are the reasons for not recognising house job of GTBH till 1992 even when it fulfils every criteria for recognisation of a hospital for house job;

(e) whether it is also a fact that this type of discrimination has left the future of doctors in dark who have done house job from there as they do not get admission in PG courses due to said non-recognisation; and

(f) if so, what steps are being taken in this regard?

THE MINISTER OF HEALTH AND FAMILY WELFARE (SHRI NILAMANI ROUTRAY): (a) to (d) A teaching hospital attached to a medical college or institution duly recommended by Medical Council of India for recognition of degrees is deemed to be recognised for house job required for postgraduate studies. The Medical Council of India made an inspection of the University College of Medical Sciences, Delhi affiliated to University of Delhi and approved the college temporarily upto 1989 admission subject to the fulfilment of various defects and deficiencies pointed out in the inspection report. The authorities concerned have sent a compliance report and another inspection will be carried out by the Council for verifying the defects and deficiencies point out in the last inspection. The Guru Teg Bahadur Hospital is a teaching hospital attached to University College of Medical Sciences affiliated to Delhi University. It may be mentioned that medical degrees awarded by Delhi University are already recognised.

(e) and (f) Does not arise.
